Debate Lasts All Day,

An all-day debate preceded the vote of a select committee which investigated the contempt charges, leading the fight against Mr. Marshall. He declared the District Attorney had offered an utrageous insult" to the House.

Representative Graham, of Pennsylvania, defending the District Attorney, said the sub-committee had opened a shall's statements were but the natural reply of an indignant man. Representatives Montague, of Virginia, and Sher-ley also defended Mr. Marshall. The impeachment proceedings were started by Representative Buchanan started by Representative Buchanan after the District Attorney's investigation of the alleged unneutral activities of Labor's National Peace Council, which resulted in the indictment of Representative Buchanan and other. Charges against Mr. Marshall related to the general conduct of his office and particularly his conduct of the Rae
